“Through These Doors
We Pass
Some To Research
Some To Learn
Some To Gaze
Some To Talk
Some To Laugh
All To Profit”

A school building is constructed of steel and cement, strong and permanent, but it is designed to accommodate an ever-changing flow of students. Year after year buses empty their loads each morning, and people stream in waves into the hallways and classrooms. To the rhythm of bells, tides of people wash in and out of the rooms and corridors and finally back to the buses, leaving the building empty. Carl Sandburg in his poem "Skyscraper" says "It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day that give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories." As each individual forms a part of the mass, so each personality contributes to the whole of Valier High's soul--that abstract thing we call school spirit. We, the Class of 1969, have left this student body. With us we have taken our individual dreams and thoughts and memories, many of which were molded in these halls and rooms.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1969, believe a dedication should have a deserving meaning. We dedicate our Annual to you because of the many young adults you have helped to mold:

For your true devotion in helping our class,

For the endless efforts and time you have spent with each of us,

For trying to understand our teenage philosophy,

For the opinions you expressed, which helped us make decisions,

For your respect of those decisions we have made,

And most of all for your sincerity which has helped to influence us in our young lives.

These are only a few reasons for our decision, but they are significant ones. This is why We, the Class of 1969, dedicate our Northern Lights to you, Mom and Dad.

Forward

The "Northern Lights" staff of 1969 presents the memories of one of the truly outstanding years in the history of Valier High School.

Exemplifying this are the classes, assemblies, homecoming, games, tests, parties, teachers, work, fun, and fellowship. This is what we have tried to put into this one small volume. We have supplied the pictures and words, you supply the memories. No matter what the future holds; peace, wars, hopes, shortcomings, your memories are forever yours.

But, it was not only the "new" that made this year great, but also the "old" - - the traditions and spirit deeply embedded in the heritage of Valier High School and handed down each year.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

Graduating Seniors,

Congratulations, your years at Valier High School are finished. I trust that you have gotten out of your high school education exactly what you put forth.

The rough road lies ahead in life. As you become more adult, the responsibilities and complexities of life become greater and greater. I hope you can bear these with the attitude of a competent and realistic individual.

Do what life demands of you, what you demand of it, and do it well.

Congratulations to the class of 1969.

Robert S. Sindelar

Robert S. Sindelar, Superintendent

Mr. Dean Swank, Chairman; Mr. Jim Powers, and Mr. Robert Arnst, Vice-Chairman.

Mr. Harry Swanson and Mr. Cliff Stoltz.

Citizens Dedicated Their Service

The School Board is composed of seven trustees who are elected for three-year terms. In the interest of education they donated their time, for which they received little recognition, yet much criticism. Establishing the governing policy and preparing the budget of Valier's school system were only a few of their responsibilities.

On Awards Night, Harry Swanson and Cliff Stoltz were presented plaques in recognition of their years of service. Mr. Swanson, who served as chairman three years, had been a trustee for nine years. Mr. Stoltz had served for five years.

Mrs. Jim Curry was the only woman trustee.

Mr. Paul Widhalm, Mr. Albert Jannusch, and Mr. Don Haynes.

Faculty —

The ultimate aim of education is to present a knowledgeable person to society. The teachers of Valier High School used many different methods in instructing their students. Rather than strictly lecture classes, the teachers provided field trips, group discussions, debates, laboratory work, and film.

Leaders Of Learning

The teachers did much more than teach scholastic subjects. They had a personal interest in the students and sought to further their growth in many fields. Each instructor, the sponsor of at least one organization, spent many hours guiding the students. The results of their labor can never be fully realized.

Football Team Gained Victory At Homecoming

The success the Panthers had this year, can be attributed to the Freshman and Sophomore boys who had the courage to stay out for football. These players took the abuse and hard knocks dealt out by the larger and more experienced members of the team. A great deal of credit goes to these fellows. However, one must not underestimate the stamina of the upper classmen, which combined with the desire of the underclassmen, brought them their first victory in two seasons.

A Team To Be Proud Of

"I am delighted to be able to write a brief message in the 1969 annual, for, I feel this was a very special group of young men. When thinking of this team, I am reminded of Robert E. Lee's statement, regarding his soldiers following the Civil War, 'More was required of them than they were able to perform.'"

"This is not the end of this team, but rather it is the beginning of a return to the dedicated student athlete that the community, the school, and each man associated with the team can be proud of. With these young men, we look to the future."

Junior Varsity Effort Showed Good Spirit

"The 1968-69 J. V. basketball season started out with a number of victories. However, due to unfortunate circumstances, we lost a number of good players to the varsity. This loss hampered our performance on the win-loss record somewhat, but it brought forth a unit in which every member had to put forth more than just good effort. These particular individuals had the spirit and attitude that it takes to be a good athlete, and a more fully developed individual."

Wrestling is a new but swiftly growing sport in Valier High School, which gains more and more attention each year. Although the 1968-1969 season was only wrestling's fourth year in Valier, the enthusiasm and drive of the athletes made it a very successful one.

Co-captains, Don Widhalm and Ken Offerdahl, pose with the trophy their team won at the Sunburst Invitational. Valier captured first with 79 points, while Sunburst scored 46, and Shelby 30 points.

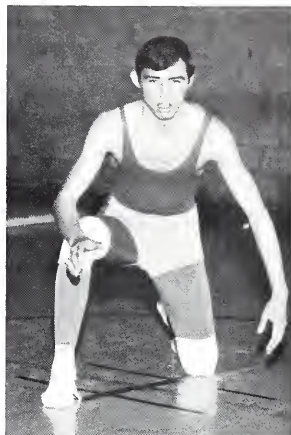

Ken Offerdahl, a Senior, decided his opponent in the finals at the district tournament to capture first place in the 120# bracket. He placed fourth at State.

Another Senior, Don Widhalm also wrestled in the finals, winning second place in his 112# bracket. He did very well at the State Tournament, placing third.

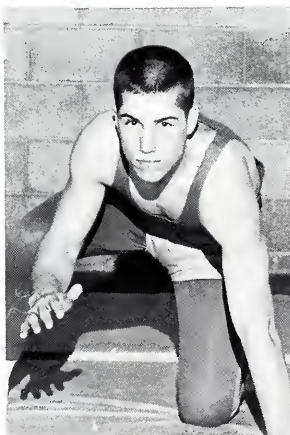

This was the last year of wrestling for Senior Smoky Smith, who added to Valier's showing at the district tournament by placing third, and competing at State in Livingston.

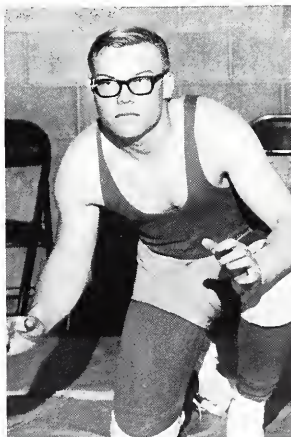

At Divisional And State Tournaments

Sporting nine wins, one tie, and only four losses during conference play, the team was particularly proud of three victories over the much larger Great Falls schools. Each boy learned not only team co-operation, but also self-improvement, as a wrestler's success lies in his own hands.

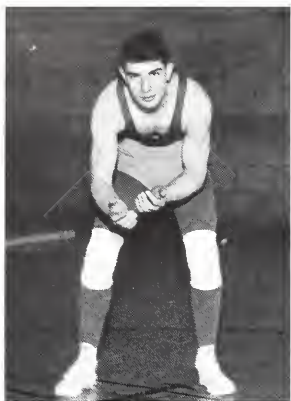

At the divisional tournament the wrestling team proved their strength. Five boys placed, winning for themselves a chance at the State event. It was with great pride that students at Valier received these five and the two who placed at State.

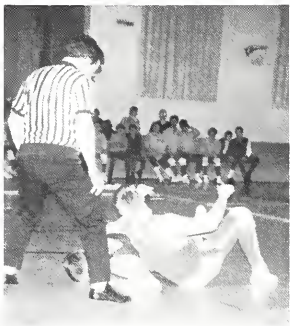

The only Junior who competed at Livingston, Jeff Briden, placed fourth in the Divisional Meet.

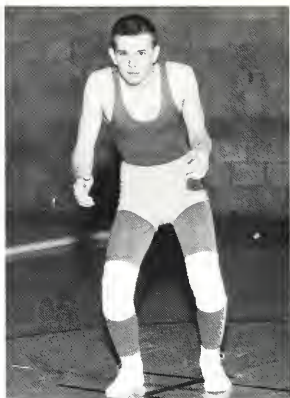

Terry VandenBos, who also participated in the State Tournament, was a Sophomore during the past season. He placed fourth at the divisional meet in Havre.

Oh, my poor neck.

New Additions Improved Track Program

"Track season took on a new look this year with seventeen boys out, an addition of two flights of hurdles, a new fiber-glass vaulting pole, and new enthusiasm.

A number of track meets were held on our track, which added spirit for many of the boys. Due to help from many individuals, all meets proved to be quite successful. We hope to have more meets in the coming years. The meets add the competitive spirit so necessary to make an individual an outstanding athlete.

It is hoped that a new interest in track has developed this year and that more individuals will be out next year."

Girls Participated In Many Events

"The girls participated in track again this year and a couple proved to be real strong in our division. A number of girls qualified for the divisional meet.

I look forward to a new interest in this sport from more girls next year since more schools are becoming involved."

Annual Staff Preserved Memories Of 1968-69

Diana Widhalm, Business Manager; Ramona Arnst, and Isola Dean, Co-Editors; Joann Boucher, Business Manager.

The 1969 Northern Lights was the major publication of Valier High School. To give the students a chance to reflect on the past activities of this school year, the staff set for themselves a goal to preserve the memories of the year.

Pecking at the typewriters, revising copy, preparing the layout--all were part of the sometimes frantic efforts to meet the deadline. At times, it seemed as though the annual would never be completed, but every member of the staff shared a sense of accomplishment when the last pages were finally sent in.

Student Council Accepted Responsibility Of Leadership

To be elected to the Student Council is perhaps one of the greatest honors in Valier High School. The Student Council is given the responsibility of leading the Student Body in every phase of school life. They did this with competence, beginning the year with a well-contested election.

Everyone who visited the school, was reminded that "This is the home of the fighting Panthers", by a slogan and emblem painted in the gym by this group. Clean-Up Day and regular locker checks were held to maintain the building's beauty. Faculty and students alike enjoyed the Computer Dance and other social events sponsored by the Student Council.

The Students Found F.T.A. Rewarding

The major purpose of the Future Teachers of America is the exploration of the profession of teaching, its opportunities and responsibilities. The members assisted the elementary teachers in a variety of ways; they spent many hours coaching small groups of young students and correcting their assignments. In this way, F.T.A. gave its members an insight into the field of teaching, helping them decide if it is the profession they want. On Parent Visitation Day the F.T.A. assisted the parents as they arrived in the morning and directed them to their classes throughout the day.

Goodness, you guys must have flunked.

Sue Gauthier and Alice Hayne, Co-Editors

I.A. Boys Excelled

The Industrial Arts Club worked to improve the facilities of our school. This year, the members built a new scoreboard for the football field. Lockers, which were built previously were finished. At the end of the year, they were in the process of building a concession stand for use at football games. The reward for the Juniors and Seniors was a field trip to Columbia Falls, where they toured the Aluminum and Wood Plants.

Hold that board still Tony.

Service Is Their Goal

The Panther Paw organization is a distinguished service honorary consisting of girls from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. The members of the group choose the incoming Sophomores each spring and the names of those who have been selected are announced at Class Night.

These girls were chosen for their scholastic ability, character, personality, sincerity, and moral values. Panther Paws assist the community at all school functions, such as ball games, concerts, and school plays. They were also responsible for the presentation of the flag during home game.

The Band Became A Team; The Voice Of The School

The High School Band had a new philosophy this year. Mr. Poelma, the director, published these words in the Band Manual, "As a member of the band, you are a member of one of the school's most important team . . . the 'voice' of the school." This was the motto of the band, which sought throughout the year to become an instrumental group as good as any other. The director taught many fundamentals in weekly sectionals. The rewards of these practice sessions were the satisfactions of improvement.

Later in the year, a marching band was formed. It was a unique and thrilling experience for the entire group, and the citizens of the community were proud to say after the Memorial Day Parade, that "that is our band!"

Chorus Enjoyed Singing

This year, 65 students participated in the Valier High School Mixed Chorus. Not wanting in spirit, the chorus presented a variety of repertoire ranging from popular to serious baroque, whereby gaining experience and proficiency. The choral accompanist was Ramona Arnst.

"Is everybody ready?"

Students Presented Their Own Concert

This Concert was unique from all concerts previously held in Valier, because the students prepared the band, chorus, and ensemble numbers without the assistance of a director. The resignation of the music teacher, seven weeks before, inspired the students to prove what they could do by themselves. The music pupils continued to hold regular band and chorus rehearsals, eager to present a good concert. A week before the big event, the new director, Mr. Joe Poelma, arrived, who helped the groups a great deal.

With the help of Mr. VanGorden and Mr. Sindelar, who coordinated the event, and groups from the Churches, the Valier High School and Valier Junior High Music Departments gave a concert which few who attended will ever forget.

The Chorus sang at the Christmas Concert.

A trumpet soloist, Debra Dean was given a "II" rating.

Greg Harwood played "Gavotte" by J. S. Bach.

Delphia and Ramona took a clarinet duet.

Warming up--"Please, sing softer!"

Tony Harwood looks over his music one last time.

Music Festival

One of the most effective ways to build up an instrumental group, is to improve the individual members. Each of these students spent many hours preparing their solos and ensembles for the Music Festival. As a result, they not only strengthened their own technique, but helped the whole band.

A saxophone duet was played by Jan Neyenhuis and Jean Wheeler.

"Il Bacio" was the trumpet duet which won a "II" for Helen and Pam.

Ina, Penny, Delphia, and Ramona were proud of the "II" their clarinet quartet received.

Melodie Johnson chose "Canzona", a flute solo for her Festival selection.

Lettermen Pursued Their Challenge

The Faculty game was really exciting!

The V-Club represents the very best of Valier High School's athletes. Only those who have earned a varsity letter in basketball, wrestling, football, or track are eligible for membership.

This year, their major project was to purchase purple blazers for the athletic department. They will be worn by all athletes to out-of-town events. To raise the funds necessary for this project, the V-Club sponsored an annual Thanksgiving turkey raffle, and a spring car wash. The faculty basketball game was also sponsored by the V-Club.

Cheerleaders Work Hard To Support Our Team

The responsibility of a cheerleader does not begin at the beginning of football season. Rather, their work starts after they are elected, by popular vote, in the spring. During the entire summer, they developed their cheers, and did odd jobs to raise money for their uniforms. These tireless girls never quit during the season. Their exuberance was still there at the end of the long Homecoming snake dance.

Cheerleaders Worked With Enthusiasm And Desire

The cheerleaders were very enthusiastic and passed their enthusiasm on to the student body during pep assemblies and ball games. The spirit of the spectators never lagged for more than a moment, because these cheerleaders performed their task well. Many hours were spent practicing their routines and making posters to improve school spirit. Without their efforts, the basketball season would not have been complete.

Freshmen Won Free Tickets

The pep club stayed behind their team throughout the long season, but some members showed exceptional spirit. Because they could not pick just one deserving pep club member, the cheerleaders chose two girls to distinguish as outstanding pep club members. They were awarded free tournament passes.

The Pep Club Backed Our Teams During The Year

This past year the Pep Club displayed much enthusiasm in supporting our athletes. The Pep Club took buses to most of our away games, and they worked hard to provide concessions for our home events. They provided a great deal of the firm backing the Student Body showed in school spirit. We are proud of the continuous willing attitude to make Valier High School a school of pride and spirit. Judging from the desire that was shown this year, next year will be even better.

The tournament was an exciting time.

They Will Be American's Future Homemakers

The objective and projects of this organization were determined by the FHA members, based on a survey of the needs and interests of today's youth. It strives to help individuals improve personal, family and community living. Some of the group projects along these lines were District and State conventions, and the Father Daughter Banquet. The officers built the program of work around the basic beliefs about home and family.

They also do community activities such as the Easter Egg Hunt. A money making project was the cook book sales. The high school social events were the Hay ride, Christmas Formal, and the Senior Tea and Style Show.

Girls' And Boys' Staters Learned By Doing

"Where there is no vision the people perish." Our American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary, realizing the need to instill the ideals of American Citizenship into this nation's youth, created and developed Girls' State and Boys' State.

These delegates to Montana Girls' State and Boys' State, were chosen by the fellow members of their class for their outstanding leadership, citizenship, honesty, speaking ability, and other merits. By participating in the many varied activities, they have returned to us, better leaders, citizens, and Americans, helping our High School to develop leaders for tomorrow.

Roger Christiaens and Dennis Simmons attended Montana Boys' State at the campus of Western Montana State College on August 10-18. Each delegate participated in one of three schools; legislative, law, and law enforcement. Dennis was a member of the Senate, and Roger was a member of the House of Representatives.

Montana Girls' State was held June 20-30 on the campus of Montana State University in Bozeman. Delegates Diana Widhalm and Ramona Arnst returned with many new ideas useful in school elections and meetings. The knowledge of State government, and the appreciation of State officers, were two of their greatest rewards.

Skill Is Gained Through Library Work

The High School's Library Staff is composed of Junior and Senior students who seek experience in library work. They performed many services, such as decorating the library, and reading stories to Grade School children, in addition to their normal duties.

The librarians organized a Library Club this year. The State Convention at Livingston was a highlight which they had worked for all year.

Honor Society Provided Services For School And Community

The members of the National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of their leadership, scholarship, character and service. The faculty council must consider all four of these factors before accepting a student into this organization. Sophomores qualify only for provisional membership; they may be selected as permanent members their Junior or Senior year.

This year Valier's chapter was more active than it had been in the past. In November, they sponsored a mock General Election, and they could be heard caroling around Valier in late December. In January, Conrad's chapter initiated Valier's members into National Honor Society in an assembly held before the entire student body. The group held a Community Talent Show in February, to raise money for the Boulder River School for the Retarded.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Parade Was A Success

During the week prior to Homecoming, each of the classes were engaged in the hustle and bustle of constructing a float. These floats, with the Queen candidates, and the cheerleaders, paraded down Main Street to the music of the band. Local businessmen decided which float was the winning one; this year they chose the Junior's float with the slogan "Sock it to 'em". The Sophomores placed second, and the Seniors' float captured third place.

A Christmas Laugh-In

The high school students started their Christmas vacation with a laugh at the senior skit, "A Christmas Laugh-In." Everyone heard his Christmas Wish, exchanged gifts, and enjoyed refreshments served by the I.A. Club and Home Ec department.

You really should do something about that weight problem, Roger.

Poor lady, she never gets to say anything.

"Do You Have My Number?"

This was THE question at the Computer Dance, which the Student Council sponsored on April 26th. A computer matched the dates, and everyone mingled in the crowded Multi-Purpose Room to find out who their "ideal dates" were for the evening.

"Where in the world are my dates?"

EVERYBODY joined in the fun, and teachers were no exception.

As well as pairing the dates for the evening, the computer picked the boy and girl who had the most ideal dates. Penny Nelson, who had 11 dates, was the Most Popular Girl, and Jerry Johnson was the Most Popular Boy with 16 dates.

Ken Offerdahl won the high-point wrestling trophy by a narrow margin of one point.

The Community Club awarded the Free-Throw Award to Tom Christiaens, who made the highest percentage of free-throws.

Class Night Was Many Memories

At Awards Night, the noteworthy students were presented with tokens of their efforts in the activities and organizations. Yet Awards Night was much more than trophies, pins and certificates. Indeed, Class Night is a more fitting title, because it was the night the senior class bade farewell to their friends of Valier High. The class history, wills and prophecies were read, and the events of the year were reviewed. At the close, the junior and senior classes participated in the poignant candlelight ceremony. As they sang "School Days", the seniors lighted the junior's candles, passing on the light of high school.

Heisey Award

The Heisey is probably the most coveted award which a student can receive. It is unique in that it is not an award for excellence, but rather for improvement. Selected by the faculty, the recipient should show signs of improvement in citizenship, scholarship and effort.

Debbie Wright was awarded the trophy as Best Actress for her role as the ambitious adolescent, Judy Meredith, in "Do You Trust Your Boyfriend?" For his role as Phil Hunter, the boy who was afraid of girls, Greg Harwood was named the Best Actor in this play.

For the leading role in "Dino" the story of a teenage boy who feels unwanted, Doug Miller was the choice for Best Actor. Joann Boucher won the title of Best Actress. She was cast as Jackie, the receptionist at the Settlement House where Dino went for help.

For the play, "Do You Trust Your Boyfriend?" Jan Neyenhuis as Madeline Ross was the Best Supporting Actress, and the Best Supporting Actor was Tony Harwood, who played Tom Nolan.

Isola Dean, Shirley in the senior play, "Dino," was named Best Supporting Actress, and Dennis Simmons, Dino's brother, Tony, was chosen the Best Supporting Actor.

The winner of the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Test, Sue Gauthier won the journalism metal and the "I Dare You" award.

Because she was the most outstanding student in all phases of home economics, Roberta Keeler was named the Outstanding Homemaker.

The John Philip Sousa Award was given to Ramona Arnst for her excellence as a band member.

Other Awards Earned By Students

Ina Beaudry, a delegate to 4-H National Congress in Chicago, took first in the district and placed in the state Elks Youth Leadership Contest.

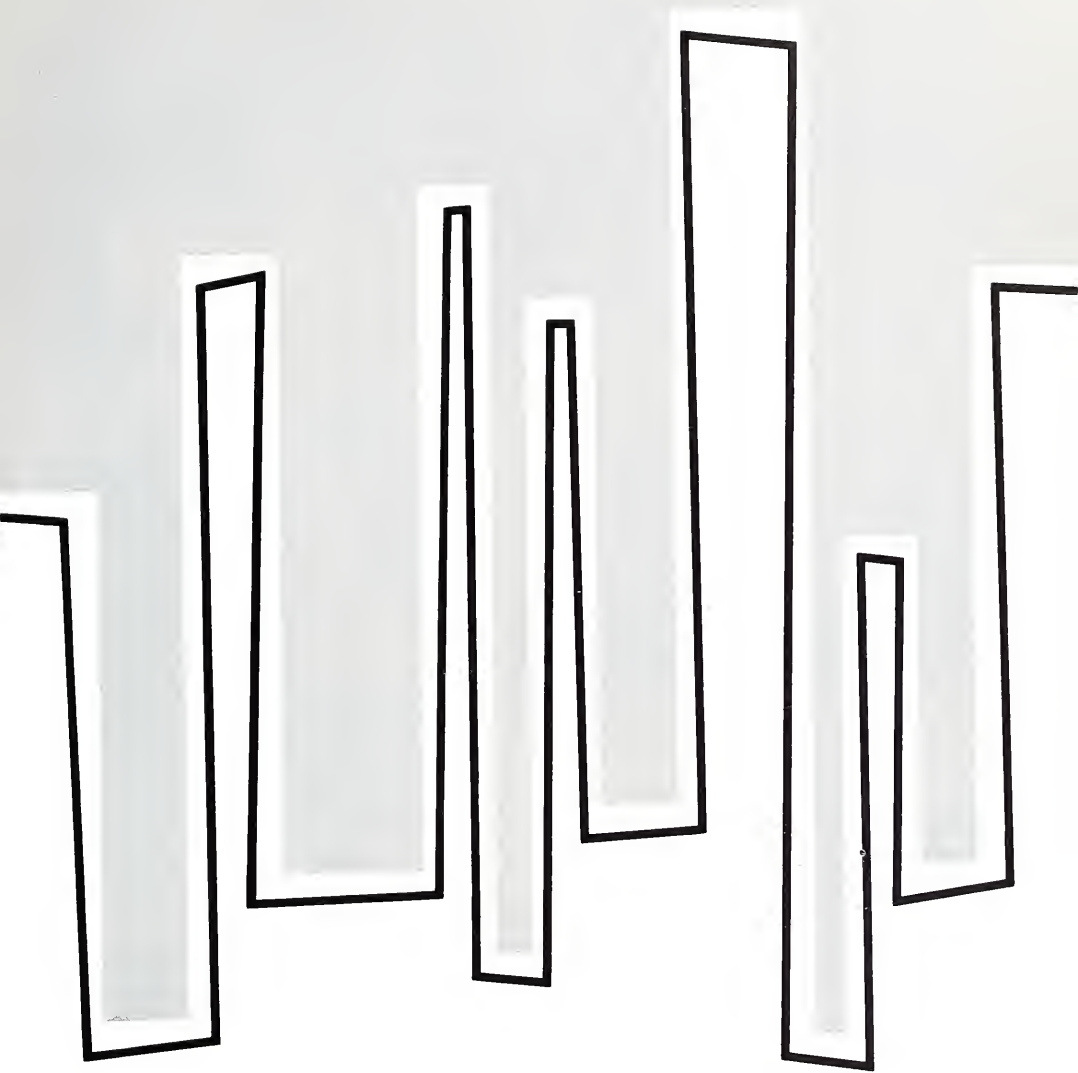

Jan Neyenhuis took first in the county and district Cowbell Beef Cook-Off.

Mark Hammer won a trip to Washington, D.C. in the REA essay contest. An outstanding Boy Scout for six years, this year he became an Eagle Scout, which is the highest rank in scouting.

To find the ideal high school girl was the goal of the 1968-69 Pondera County Junior Miss Pageant. Entered from Valier was Ramona Arnst, seated, who was chosen Junior Miss, and Diana Widhalm, Isola Dean, and Jeri Goff, who won the Spirit of Junior Miss award.

The moment we've all been waiting for.

After twelve years of study, May 26th, Graduation Day, arrived. When the confusion of pictures, lining up, and pinning corsages at last settled down, the juniors marched in for the pine bough ceremony. Closely behind came the seniors in their purple and white robes. Perhaps each graduate thought of his "Impossible Dream," which the chorus had just sung, as he received his diploma.

Many tears of joy and sadness were shed as friends, relatives and classmates passed through the receiving line with congratulations and farewells.

"Someday, WE'LL be in the caps and gowns."

IS THIS YOU?

Our property taxes in Montana came to more than $6,500,000 in 1968, a record. Of this about 64 per cent went for education. That's nearly $4,120,000.

In Pondera County, our taxes came to approximately $73,000. The cost of schooling for one student for one year in our Montana public schools is $689.

That means our taxes here would pay the bill for educating about 107 students in this county.

Is the boy above one of them? Are YOU one of them? Actually, both of you are. . .to some degree.

We believe money spent wisely for education to be a sound investment in the future. Be our guest.

THE MONTANA POWER COMPANY

Our Thank You

The 1968-69 year is over and memories are all that remain. We, the editors, hope that we have succeeded in preserving the many joys of high school life. Without the help of many people, this Northern Lights would never have been possible.

We extend a sincere thank you to the advertisers who helped finance the book, and to the many members of the faculty who were never too busy to help us with the copy.

To the rest of the staff a thank you for time spent selling ads, typing, and doing the many jobs necessary.

To our sponsor, Mrs. VanCorden, we are especially grateful for her untiring efforts, patience, and helpful suggestions.
